

ICS Impulse monocular VNG solution

Greater precision – faster diagnosis

Introducing a simple way to help balance patients. Easy-to-use and transport, the newly-released monocular VNG gives you the possibility to test and shorten the patient journey with more accurate referrals. The newly-released caloric module makes ICS® Impulse capable of all the basic tests you need for starting test balance patients in one simple device. With customized testing, you will experience greater precision and a faster diagnosis. Bring balance to the point of care and start helping more vestibular patients today.

ICS Impulse monocular VNG solution:

- Value monocular VNG solution for those who do not require binocular recording
- Ability to test vision and vision-denied
- True portability – no lightbar required
- Otosuite® Vestibular data storage & exceptional reporting capabilities allows a built-in comprehensive report in one place
- Access to more patients with all modules and ability to upgrade
- Head position feedback to help ensure proper patient movement for assessment and treatment maneuvers ensuring proper data collection
- Lightest goggles with superior patient comfort

Start helping more vestibular patients today

Visit ICSImpulse.com for more product information, training and webinars.

Natus Medical Denmark ApS. +45 45 75 55 55. otoinfo@natus.com Natus Medical Incorporated. 1-800-289-2150. otosales.us@natus.com
otometrics.com | natus.com

otometrics
 a division of natus.